July 18, 2007

Dear Actuary:

I am pleased to announce that the Atlanta Actuarial Club's next meeting will be held Monday, August 20th at 11:30 AM, at the Maggiano's at Perimeter Mall. Directions to the mall can be found at: <http://www.perimetermall.com/html/malldirections.asp>

Mark Skillan, M.D from Munich American Reassurance Company will talk about "Pandemic Flu: What is it? Should we remain concerned?"

Dr. Skillan joined Munich American Reassurance Company in 1984 and is currently Vice President and Medical Director. He graduated from Lehigh University and attended medical school at University of Alabama School of Medicine. Dr. Skillan is Board Certified in Internal Medicine and Insurance Medicine. He is a member of the American Academy of Insurance Medicine (AAIM), Board of Insurance Medicine, American Council of Life Insurers - Medical Section, and he served as ACLI Medical Section Chair in 2000-2001.

Dr. Skillan will provide us with a basic overview of the Pandemic Flu which includes medical definitions/explanations, the historical perspective of prior flu pandemics, a look at the current situation and possible implications from a personal and business perspective. This will be a thought provoking presentation.

A registration form with details is below. All actuaries with at least 1 exam are welcome to join and attend this meeting. If you know of any actuaries in the Atlanta area that did not receive this announcement, please pass it on.

To attend, the Club requests that your registration form and check be received by Monday, August 13th.

Thanks for those of you who support this club. As a way to thank our members, there will be no member dues for 2007 if you have paid dues in any of the past 3 years. Additional information about the club can be found on our website: www.atlantaactuarialclub.org

We hope to see you at the Atlanta Actuarial Club meeting on August 20th.

Sincerely,

Atlanta Actuarial Club Monday, August 20, 2007 Luncheon Meeting
